WHO THIS IS FOR

BUILT FOR THE B2B PERFORMER.

✓ THIS IS FOR YOU IF...

- ✓ You're a B2B sales rep or account manager with a solid track record of performance
- ✓ You've been given leadership responsibility — formally or informally — and want to do it properly
- ✓ You want to earn on the performance of a team, not just your own production
- ✓ You've noticed that being good at selling doesn't automatically make you good at developing others
- ✓ You want a structured, evidence-based framework for coaching — not just instinct and experience

✗ THIS ISN'T FOR YOU IF...

- x You haven't yet proven consistent performance as a sales rep — leadership starts with credibility
- x You want a management title without the management responsibility
- x You're not willing to have difficult conversations with underperforming team members
- x You expect your team to perform the way you do without being developed properly

12 MODULES • 48 LESSONS

THE COMPLETE LEADERSHIP SYSTEM.

The Sales Coach builds every skill required to lead a high-performing sales team — from how adults learn to how underperformance is managed. Nothing is left to instinct.

Module 01

THE LEADERSHIP IDENTITY

What a sales manager actually does. Why great reps don't automatically make great managers. Your natural leadership style and how to adapt it.

Module 02

HOW TO TEACH SALES

The difference between knowing how to sell and knowing how to teach it. The four stages of competence. The demonstration-practice-feedback loop.

Module 03

ROLE PLAY & SKILL PRACTICE

Why most role play fails. How to play the prospect convincingly. The three-round session structure that produces real skill transfer.

Module 04

ONBOARDING NEW REPS

The first 30 days that determine the first 12 months. Week-by-week onboarding structure. Early warning signals and intervention conversations.

Module 05

BUILDING YOUR SALES PLAYBOOK

What a playbook is, what it must contain, how to build it with the team, and how to keep it current and actually used.

Module 06

CALL REVIEWS

The five-layer observation framework. The four-stage review session. SBI feedback. Building a culture where reps submit their own calls.

Module 07

ONE-TO-ONE COACHING

The 1:1 that develops rather than checks in. The six-element session structure. Handling the rep who says everything is fine when it isn't.

Module 08

GROUP TRAINING & TEAM DEVELOPMENT

When to train the group versus the individual. The five-element session structure. Peer coaching and healthy competition design.

Module 09

DIAGNOSING PERFORMANCE PROBLEMS

The three root causes – skill, belief, motivation. The diagnostic process. Targeted interventions for each cause. When it's not fixable.

Module 10

MANAGING UNDERPERFORMANCE

Why managers avoid it and what that costs. The first conversation structure. PIPs done right. The exit conversation – dignity, clarity, legal awareness.

Module 11

RETAINING YOUR BEST PEOPLE

The real reasons top performers leave. The stay interview. Career pathing conversations. The recognition culture that makes leaving less attractive.

Module 12

RUNNING A HIGH-PERFORMING TEAM

The weekly non-negotiables, team meeting structure, target-setting principles, and the leadership practices that compound over time.

THE SHIFT

FROM PERFORMER TO DEVELOPER.

01 A COMPLETE COACHING FRAMEWORK

Not instinct-based leadership — a structured, repeatable system for developing any rep at any stage of their growth.

02 A BUILT PLAYBOOK

Your team's sales playbook — built during the programme, not after it. A living document your reps actually use.

03 PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT CAPABILITY

The ability to diagnose underperformance specifically, address it directly, and either develop or exit people cleanly.

04

A WEEKLY OPERATING CADENCE

The rhythm – 1:1s, call reviews, group training, team meetings – that keeps a team performing consistently without depending on you for every decision.

05

Demonstrated coaching capability opens doors within the Shevlin network – including team lead roles within the Growth Partnership Model.

The Sales Coach is launching its first cohort and is open exclusively to B2B sales reps and account managers with a demonstrable performance track record. COMMON QUESTIONS

HONEST ANSWERS TO REAL QUESTIONS.

DO I NEED TO ALREADY BE IN A MANAGEMENT ROLE?

No — but you need to have someone to coach. The programme is designed to be applied in real time, which means you need access to at least one or two people you're developing. That could be a formal team, an informal mentoring relationship, or a peer arrangement.

I'M A STRONG PERFORMER. WHY DO I NEED FORMAL TRAINING TO LEAD?

Because the skills that make you a great rep actively work against you as a manager – if you don't understand why. The doing instinct, the high standards, the self-reliance. This programme makes those patterns explicit so you can redirect them rather than let them limit your team.

HOW IS THIS DIFFERENT FROM INTERNAL MANAGEMENT TRAINING?

Most internal training teaches you what to do. This programme teaches you why things work – so you can adapt to any rep, any situation, and any team dynamic. The frameworks are principle-based, not script-based. The difference shows up when things don't go as planned.

CAN I DO THIS WHILE STILL IN MY CURRENT ROLE?

Yes. The programme is structured around your working week. The live call is weekly, the modules are self-paced, and the tasks are designed to be applied with your real team – so the programme and the job reinforce each other rather than compete.

WHAT DOES THE LEADERSHIP PATHWAY MEAN IN PRACTICE?

Completing The Sales Coach with demonstrated coaching impact puts you in consideration for team lead positions within the Shevlin Growth Partnership network. It's performance-based – assessed through your coaching quality, your team's improvement, and your management of the programme tasks. Earned, not given.

WHY £5,000?

Because what you're building is worth significantly more than £5,000. A sales manager who can consistently develop reps earns leverage – their income is no longer limited to their own production. One rep you develop who closes £30,000 a month at a 3% override is £900 per month in passive income. The investment pays for itself in the first quarter.

READY TO LEAD INSTEAD OF JUST SELL?
